MacLean Was Cool
GLASGOW, Feb. 10.—Captain MacLean of the Tuscania has submitted a report to his owners and the board of trade and naval authorities. He declined to make a statement for publication, remarking that the main facts of the disaster already had been fairly stated.

A young Irish lad, a resident of Glasgow, who acted as Captain MacLean's boy, was interviewed by The Associated Press correspondent. The boy said that after the torpedoing Captain MacLean looked to be the coolest man on board, giving orders as if nothing had happened to interfere with the ordinary ship routine.

"He was just like a father looking after his children," the boy said, "and repeatedly encouraged small parties who were hurrying to get into life-boats."

The lad added that the captain's amazing coolness was the cause of effect on the American soldiers. The second officer, who superintended the launching of the boats on the starboard side, the board said, also gave a splendid example of courage, repeatedly risking his life to get the boats away.

The boy also was impressed by the courage of the American soldiers.

The Tuscania's second officer had a remarkable experience. He was in a boat with forty others. He said: "All at once we bumped into something hard and when I looked around there was a submarine lying awash to look at his dirty work. What could he do? We simply carried on and got picked up. The tin fish submerged immediately after."

HOLDS UP AUTO. KILLS GENERAL

Sergeant G. Morini.

A tale of real daring is the story of Sergeant G. Morini's feat at the gates of Udine during the recent Italian retreat. Single-handed, he held up a German motor car, killed Gen. Von Berr, captured a German captain and put to flight two soldier chauffeurs.

He was 26 years old.

Left Belfast Saturday
BELFAST, Ireland, Feb. 10.—The Belfast Telegraph says that a party of Americans rescued in the Tuscania disaster took farewell of Belfast Saturday afternoon, enroute for the south. The Telegraph says: "The departure of the Americans was not generally known, else the crowd that cheered their progress to the station would have been many times larger. As it was their passing created quite a stir of interest and the enthusiasm lacked nothing for its fervor and good will."

WILLIAMS FROM PUEBLO
PUEBLO, Colo., Feb. 10.—Paul A. Williams, who was heard of the Tuscania and listed as being one of the overseas casualties, Camp Travis detachment No. 2, but whose real name was not received among the survivors, is now in Pueblo in the company of the 150th Aero Squadron. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams of this city. He is married and his wife at present is in Oklahoma. While in Pueblo he was employed at a local foundry and is an expert automobile mechanic. He left Pueblo in October with a draft contingent and was later sent to Woodward, Okla., where he took an examination and was sent to Camp Travis at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

THIRTY-FIVE MISSING
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Thirty-five names on the list of survivors given out by the public information bureau do not appear on the war department roster of those on board.

It is assumed that some soldiers possibly were sent aboard the steamer at the last moment without having their names reported for the passenger list recorded on this side and also that some members of the ship's crew may have been erroneously reported among the military survivors.

Muncaster Not Listed
DENVER, Feb. 10.—Ray D. Muncaster, who sailed on the Tuscania and whose name is not listed among those rescued, enlisted in Company D, Sixth Battalion, Twentieth Engineers, early in December, 1917. His mother and three sisters live in Denver. Muncaster was a graduate of a local high school and for a time was a student at Colorado college, Colorado Springs, Colo., but graduated from the University of Washington, Seattle. When he enlisted he was in the forest service at Lake Quinal, Wash. He passed through Denver on his way east to join his organization De-

BOLSHEVIKI FAIL TO BREAK UP RUSS MEET IN NEW YORK

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Efforts of the Bolsheviks failed today to break up the All-Russian convention in session here. Noisy demonstrations by the radicals did not shake the determination of the conservatives to adopt resolutions expressing plainly their opinions of the present rule in Russia.

Leon Martin, temporary chairman, told the interlopers who had assembled at the entrance that if they continued their efforts to break up the meeting, the Bolsheviks of New York would be broken up by police. A special officer volunteered to demonstrate what could be done by a lone policeman. His efforts were quite successful.

After tempestuous arguments the Bolsheviks were permitted to enter the hall after taking an oath that they would make no noise.

When the convention got under way, President Semenovskiy offered resolutions outlining the aims of the Russian colony in the United States. Debates upon them were general. Many modifications were proposed. As adopted the resolutions read in part:

"We greet the Russian revolutionary people through the constituent assembly, which is the only body that has power to execute the will and demands of Russians as a free people."

"We declare against the methods of the Bolshevik party, which aims at the point of the bayonet to establish its own rule."

"We demand that the soviets of soldiers unite with the soviets of business men and also with all socialistic powers of the provisional government, and we further demand the calling of an immediate session of the constituent assembly."

"We plead for discontinuation of civil war in Russia."

"We greet the United States as the country which has sheltered us and harbored us with its unbounded hospitality and as the first nation to recognize free Russia after the fall of autocracy."

"Permanent organization of all Russians in the United States and Canada as the 'Federation of Russian Organizations in America' was decided upon. There will be an executive committee of fifteen members, but every rule will be granted local councils. Headquarters will be established here."

RUSSIAN BOY LOST
9 MILES FROM TOWN
Willie Papin, a Russian boy, 14 years of age, was picked up by sheriff's office attaches last night, badly bewildered and unable to tell where he lives. The youth said his folks reside four miles west of Phoenix but could offer no directions which might help the officer to take him home. He was found at the L. E. Graham ranch, nine miles out of Phoenix, whither he had walked, thinking he was going home.

PEACE EQUAL WAR
[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
ZURICH, Switzerland, Feb. 10.—The separate peace signed with the Ukraine is the equivalent of a declaration of war by the central powers against the Bolsheviks, says the Zurich Zeitung. It doubts whether the Ukraine is in position to conclude an effective peace.

EXTEND TIME ON INCOME REVENUES
[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Extension of the time for filing income and excess profits returns from March 1 to April 1 was announced today by Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper. The ruling applies also to reports on payments of more than $800 during the year to be made by employers and business enterprises and covers incomes both above and below $3,000, and corporation incomes.

JOY BELLS RING
OVER PEACE PLAN
[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON, Feb. 10.—Joy bells were rung in Berlin and there was rejoicing at Vienna over the conclusion of a separate peace with the Kiev rada, while Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik foreign minister, was still disputing the right of that rada to represent Ukraine at the Brest-Litovsk negotiations and while Ukraine is still torn by civil war. Nothing of peace thus secretly arranged, but they are supposed to include cession of the Ruthenian portion of Galicia to Ukraine in return for some sort of Austrian protectorate, and it is pretty safe to assume that trade and economic relations will enter largely into them.

It also is rumored that the central powers have made an offer of military assistance to the Kiev rada in overcoming the Bolshevik invasion.

GERMAN OFFENSE
MAY START SOON
[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Development of Germany's long deferred offensive in the west from the reconnoitering thrusts launched during the past week around Cambrai and at other points is suggested as a possibility in the weekly military review issued tonight by the war department. So far, however, in spite of heavy fighting, the department says no actions of more than local character have been recorded.

The review tells of the torpedoing of the liner Tuscania, which carried more than 2,100 American soldiers, and attributes the relatively small loss of life, estimated at about 113 men, to the fine discipline of the soldiers and efficiency of those in command. It expresses profound appreciation of the rescue work of the British navy.

Describing briefly the activities of the American troops occupying a sector of the Lorraine front, the department says they have shown themselves well fitted for their task and are rapidly becoming accustomed to trench warfare.

ALIEN ENEMIES MUST REGISTER

German alien enemies have until February 13 to register at the police station. Originally the federal authorities fixed February 3 as the last date for this registration, but late Saturday afternoon Chief of Police George O. Brishols received word that the time had been extended to next Wednesday.

Up to the present time there have been but about 50 registrations, although it is believed there are upwards of 200 in the city of Phoenix who are required under the law to register with the police. A check is being made of those whom it is understood come within the alien enemy registration laws and those who fail to take advantage of the extension of time will find themselves in a predicament. It is believed there will be an influx of foreigners within the next day or two.

HOSTILE RAIDING PARTY REPULSED

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LONDON... Feb. 10.—Field Marshal Haig's headquarters in France tonight reports:

"Early last night a hostile raiding party was repulsed with loss south of Houtholst forest."

"The enemy artillery was active southwest of Cambrai today."

ROME, Feb. 10.—Somewhat lively artillery fire on the Asiago plateau and to the west of Monte Grappa is reported in today's official statement. It adds:

"A strong naval seaplane squadron bombarded with very good results the enemy's shelters at Reveldi, at the mouth of the Piave."

CADORNA'S PLACE WILL BE FILLED

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
PARIS, Feb. 10.—It is announced that General Cadorna, former commander-in-chief of the Italian army, has been replaced as Italian delegate to the supreme war council by General Giordano, assistant chief of staff to General Diaz, Italian commander-in-chief.

A Rome dispatch Saturday announced that General Giordano had been detailed to attend the meetings of the supreme war council at Versailles, but did not indicate General Cadorna was to be withdrawn as Italian military representative.
